

Garden Birds - Who Am I?

Woodland Trust

naturedetectives

I have a yellow beak, and black feathers. You might find me in a nursery rhyme!

I have a lovely red/brown chest and grey head. I love to eat seeds!

I am quite small with a yellow belly. Check out my blue wings and head!

Garden Birds - Who Am I?

I am yellow-green. Look for the yellow stripe along the edge of my wing.

I have a black and white head and a black stripe down my yellow tummy. I like peanuts!

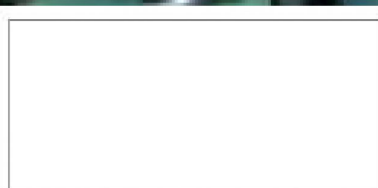

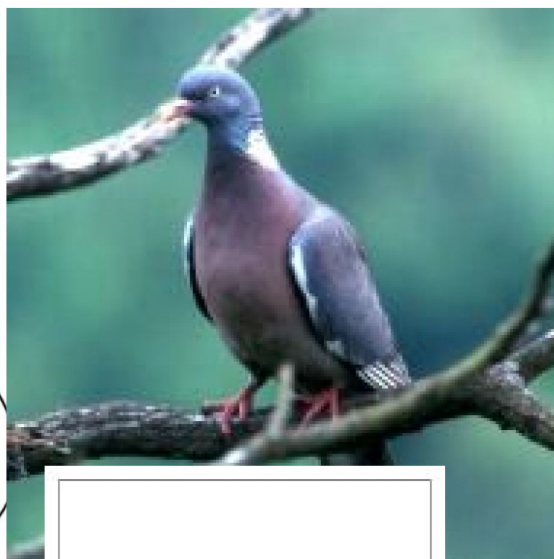

I am brown with lots of spots on my tummy - I like to pick slugs and worms from the garden.

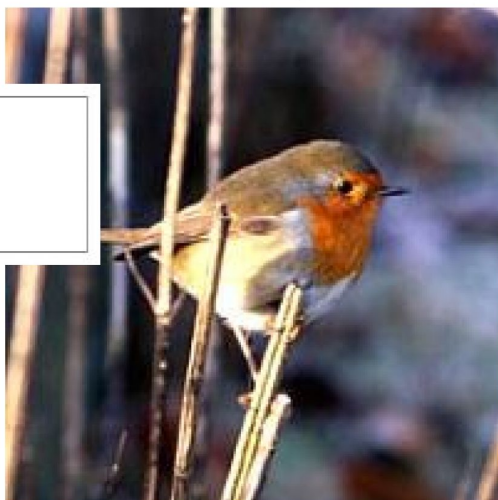

Garden Birds - Who Am I?

I have a pinkish tummy
and white patches on my neck and wings - I peck
about on the ground

I am in your garden all year round. I have a red chest and a small beak.
You see me on Christmas
cards!

I am black and white and have some colourful feathers.
People think I am unlucky to
see. I am a big bird.
